RISK PROFILE

Risk/lower potential reward

Risk/higher potential reward

The risk indicator, based on past volatility, cannot cover all types of risks to which the fund may be exposed. It is possible that the past data used does not constitute a reliable indication of the future risk profile. The category associated with this fund is not a guarantee and can evolve with time. The lowest category is not synonymous with a "riskless" investment.

PERFORMANCE SHARE CLASS R

Past performance is not a guarantee of future performance, nor is it constant with time and does not constitute in any case a guarantee of future performance.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENT

Spreads on the European investment grade market ended September at 116bp, close to their level at the end of August but having peaked at 120bp during the month. The yield curve moved in a bull steepening pattern, with the German 10-year rate rising from 2.30% to 2.12% and the 2-year rate from 2.40% to 2.07%.

The European Central Bank (ECB) came as no surprise by cutting its rate by 25bp at its monetary policy meeting on 12 September, bringing the deposit rate down to 3.5%. The ECB adopted a balanced tone in its monetary policy statement, with growth projections slightly lowered by 0.1% over the forecast horizon and headline inflation left unchanged. At the press conference following the meeting, Christine Lagarde reaffirmed that future cuts would depend on the data. On the other side of the Atlantic, after eight consecutive meetings at which key rates were held at restrictive levels, the Fed decided to lower the target range for Fed funds by 50bp to 4.75%-5%. Disinflationary trends are in place in both Europe and the United States, leaving room for central banks to continue normalising monetary policy. Macroeconomic data is weak in Europe, illustrated by falling PMIs and business sentiment (IFO). China, meanwhile, is playing the stimulus card and has announced a series of measures that have sent the markets soaring. Against this backdrop, the primary market was buoyant in September for both financials and corporates, and transactions were well absorbed. On the secondary market, the automotive sector came under pressure following a series of disappointing results. Overall, the current environment remains favourable for the credit market, with financials and real estate continuing to do well.

In financials, we participated in the launch of PKO Bank (Green) and Banco BPM (Social). On the secondary side, we reduced our exposure to the automotive sector and sold VF Corp.
